Questionnaires

Automate the collection of data and scoring of questionnaires you send to vendors

Overview

During the due diligence process, it is common to obtain information by sending a questionnaire for the vendor to complete and return. It can be tedious figuring out what questions to ask each time and tiresome to sift through the answers to then determine the level of risk that vendor leaves you at and where you need to dive deeper to make next steps in the risk mitigation process.

Venminder's Questionnaire Modules were designed to build efficiencies and provide seamless tools to build, send, manage, review and score questionnaires. You can build and store an unlimited number of questionnaire templates that can be distributed to vendors or recipients internally. By automating the questionnaire process, you will gain quick access into status metrics and increase risk accuracy with the extensive scoring customization options.

Quickly and easily see the risk associated with a vendor in targeted areas as it relates to questionnaire responses and scoring inside the Venminder Third-Party Risk Management Platform.
